Clint Walker Honored as Father of the Year

Clinton W. Walker, General Counsel and CAO, Barclays Bank and Past-Chairman of the Delaware Bankers Association was honored as Father of the Year by the Father's Day Council, June 14th at a dinner at the Deerfield Golf Club in Newark. The event benefited the American Diabetes Association. Also honored were U.S. Senator Chris Coons, and Harry A. Gravell, President of the Delaware Building and Construction Trades Council. The Father's Day Counsel identifies and honors fathers who have demonstrated the ability to balance their personal lives, to serve as a role model for their children, and help make a positive difference in the community. Clint is married and has two sons.

Fulton Financial Corporation Declares Quarterly Cash Dividend; Approves Share Repurchase Program

Fulton Financial Corporation will pay a quarterly cash dividend of seven cents per share on its common stock on July 13, 2012 to shareholders of record as of July 2, 2012. Fulton Financial Corporation, a $16.5 billion Lancaster, Pa.-based financial holding company, has over 3,800 employees and operates more than 270 branches in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey and Virginia through six subsidiary banks. Fulton also announced that, under a program approved today by its board of directors, it is authorized to repurchase up to five million shares, or approximately 2.5 percent of the company's outstanding shares, through December 31, 2012. As of June 19, 2012, the Corporation had approximately 201 million shares of common stock outstanding. As permitted by securities laws and other legal requirements and subject to market conditions and other factors, purchases may be made from time to time in open market purchases at prevailing prices. The program may be discontinued at any time.

Richards Layton Attorney Receives the DSBA President's Award

Richards, Layton & Finger attorney Mark Purpura received the Delaware State Bar Association's President's Award in recognition of his advocacy for justice and equality for all Delawareans. Purpura and fellow Wilmington attorney Lisa Goodman were given this special award for their work on behalf of Equality Delaware. The President's Award was presented on June 6 by DSBA President James G. McGiffin Jr. at this year's Bench and Bar Conference, held at the Chase Center on the Riverfront in Wilmington, Delaware. "It is a tremendous honor for Equality Delaware's work to be recognized by our peers in the legal community, and particularly by Jim McGiffin, who has dedicated his career to helping those in need," says Purpura. "My experiences with the great team of people at Equality Delaware, and other advocates for equality in Delaware and around the country, have been among the most rewarding experiences of my legal career. I am very grateful to my colleagues at Richards, Layton & Finger for being supportive of our work in the Delaware community."
