Delaware Counsel Group Lawyer Speaks at National American Bar Association Meeting

James C. Strum, a partner with the law firm of The Delaware Counsel Group, LLP, presented at the American Bar Association's Section of Business Law Spring Meeting in Seattle, WA. The panel discussed the duties of a statutory trust trustee. Mr. Strum's presentation focused on the fiduciary duties of a Delaware Statutory Trust trustee during the dissolution and winding up process. Copies of his program materials are available upon request or under the Publishing History section of the firm's Web site www.delawarecounselgroup.com.

The ABA Section of Business Law meeting brings together business lawyers across the country and internationally to present on topics, conduct committee meetings on various substantive areas and provide opportunities to collaborate on projects.

Mr. Strum's practice focuses on Delaware corporate and alternative business entities, including advice in connection with litigation, formation and operation of such entities. He can be reached at (302) 576-9600 Ext. 14 or jstrum@delawarecounselgroup.com
