Delaware Counsel Group Lawyer Speaks on Private REITs

Ellisa Opstbaum Habbart, a partner with the law firm of The Delaware Counsel Group, LLP, will present on the topic of using Delaware entities in private REIT transactions at the 2nd Annual Private/Non-Exchange Traded REITs Symposium at the Roosevelt Hotel in New York City. Over 300 private/non-exchanged traded REIT representatives, financial advisors, broker/dealers and service provider representatives are expected to attend.

An industry that raised more than 6 billion in capital in 2004, the presentation is part of an overall conference regarding the formation, structure, financing and operations of private and non-exchange traded REITs. The conference is presented by Information Management Network (IMN), a global organizer of institutional finance and investment conferences. For more information about the conference or IMN, please visit <http://www.imn.org>.

Ms. Habbart's practice focuses on Delaware corporate and alternative business entities, including advice in connection with the formation, operation and governance issues involving such entities. She chairs the ABA Section of Business Law REITs, REMICs and Financing Trusts, a subcommittee of the Partnerships and Unincorporated Business Organizations Committee. Ms. Habbart can be reached at (302) 576-9600 Ext. 12 or ehabbart@delawarecounselgroup.com.
