Delaware Counsel Group Lawyer Presents at Annual Conference of Commercial Administrators

Ellisa Opstbaum Habbart, a partner with the law firm of The Delaware Counsel Group, LLP, will present on the topic of Delaware Limited Liability Companies (LLC) at the annual conference of the International Association of Commercial Administrators (IACA) in Fredericton, New Brunswick. Ms. Habbart will address the specific characteristics of an LLC containing a series and any special considerations that commercial administrators may encounter. Program attendees will gain insight into the establishment of the "series" feature, understand the operations of an LLC with this characteristic and discuss any possible entity-identification issues.

The presentation is part of the annual educational programming presented by IACA. A professional association for government administrators of business entity and secured transaction record systems at the state, provincial and national level in any jurisdiction, its annual conference will be held in New Brunswick, Canada. For more information about the conference or IACA, please visit <http://www.iaca.org>.

Ms. Habbart's practice focuses on Delaware corporate and alternative business entities, including advice in connection with the formation, operation and governance issues involving such entities. She can be reached at (302) 576-9600 Ext. 12 or ehabbart@delawarecounselgroup.com.
